

2,000 HOUSES
LAID IN RUINSConstantinople Swept by Terrible Conflagration

10,000 PEOPLE HOMELESS

Five Districts of Stamboul Were Ravaged By Flames Which Started Yesterday Afternoon and Raged Until Today.

Constantinople, Aug. 24.—Fire this morning had ravaged five districts of the Stamboul quarter and destroyed 2,000 houses, causing a loss of several millions. A searching party is hunting for the bodies of the reported victims. The fire was the worst that Constantinople had had since 1870. Ten thousand people are homeless.

The fire broke out yesterday afternoon, and within a very brief period a terrible conflagration was raging. A strong wind carried the flames at great speed and for six hours the flames made rapid progress. At nine o'clock the wind went down, and the fire moved less rapidly, although it continued to burn up to this morning.

Stamboul is the Mohammedan part of the city. Within its walls are the seraglio, the principal mosque, the mausoleums of the sultan, the baths, the bazars, the public offices of the government, and the existing remains of ancient Constantinople. It is divided for administrative purposes into three municipal circles and into a large number of quarters. Separate quarters are allotted to Armenians, Greeks and Jews.

In 1865 the quarters were destroyed by fire, and these have now been laid out in good streets.

The general appearance of the older streets is that of a city built of wood. Many of the buildings, however, are of much more solid construction, some of brick and some of brick and stone.

Stamboul covers the whole area enclosed by the Theodosian walls of Constantinople, and its main streets follow the lines of those of the ancient city.

ROBBERY AT GYPSY WEDDING.

Boys Steal a Necklace Valued at $1,100.

Boston, Aug. 24.—While a wedding was in progress at a big gypsy camp on Center street, Jamaica Plain, last night, which was attended by about 2,000 spectators, two boys entered a tent occupied by one of the gypsy women and stole a necklace worth $1,100. It was made of six $20 gold pieces, and 200 Brazilian $5 gold pieces. Three watches and a chain were also taken. The jewelry was the property of Berse Stanner.

When the discovery of the robbery was made almost a riot started in the camp and the boys seen leaving the tent managed to escape. Police officers were rushed to the scene and had great difficulty in restoring order among the wedding spectators and the occupants of the camp.

The gypsy camp has been ordered to move from its quarters by the board of health and the time is up tomorrow. Last night the chief of the tribe declared that he would not get away then. The board of health is determined to enforce its order and may have to call the police.

ROBBERY MYSTERY
SOLVED IT IS THOUGHT

By Arrest of G. W. Fitzgerald in Chicago Yesterday, Charged With Theft of $173,000 From United States Sub-treasury.

Chicago, Aug. 24.—The mystery of the theft of $173,000 from the United States sub-treasury a year and a half ago is believed to have been solved by the arrest yesterday of George W. Fitzgerald. Other persons are believed to have been implicated in the crime. Fitzgerald was an assenting teller under Assistant United States Treasurer Boldenweck. Suspicion at the time of the theft, February 10, 1907, rested on him, but so plausible was his story and so intense his apparent interest in discovering the real culprit that interest ceased to center in him. Fitzgerald, however, was discharged from the government employ for culpable negligence in allowing the theft to be committed. The money stolen had been used and was tied in packages some having been marked for destruction at Washington. Any of the bills would readily have passed anywhere except for their large denominations. None of the bills were under $200 and some were of the $1,000 and $5,000 denominations, the $1,000 ones predominating.

SUICIDE OR ACCIDENT.

Winifred Parsons Died From a Revolver Wound.

Paris, Aug. 24.—Miss Winifred Parsons, daughter of the late Charles Parsons, president of the Home, Water, town and Ogdenburg railroad who died in 1904, was found dead with a bullet in her head yesterday in her apartment in the Avenue Louis. The police say that the case is one of suicide, while friends of the dead girl declare that the shooting was an accident. Owing to the desire of friends and relatives to give the tragedy as little publicity as possible difficulty was experienced in the early investigations in securing details of the affair, which at first appeared wrapped in mystery.

It was learned however, that the girl had been suffering from melancholia since the death of her fiancé a young Frenchman, Emile Maas, who died four months ago from consumption. Miss Parsons was found dead in bed at noon yesterday by a maid who entered the room with her breakfast. The girl was lying on her right side and her right hand half clutched a revolver, a bullet from which had penetrated the brain.

The maid summoned help and the police were notified. A doctor arrived soon afterward said that the girl probably had been dead several hours. The police said it was a case of suicide.

That the president is pleased with the report is shown in a letter which he sent to each member of the commission on Friday. The president will submit the report to Congress with appropriate recommendations. The commission report that it "inspected the entire line of the canal excavation from La Boca, the southern or Pacific terminus, to Cristobal, and travelled through the excavation several times interviewing the men at work." S., Aug. 24.—Cheered by officers and men of the fleet hundreds of sailors and marines saw Tommy Burns, the American heavyweight champion, pummel Bill Squires, the Australian scrapper, finally knocking him out in 13 rounds. The American was master of the situation most of the time, but international courtesy demanded consideration.

The details of the fight show that the Australian had Burns groggy in the tenth round and showed great power in 11th. It is generally believed that the American, however, somewhat underestimated his opponent, giving many careless openings.

Robert I. Olsen, formerly of Barre, has written an interesting letter from Vancouver, B. C., in which he tells of the close call of that city from destruction by fire. Almost the entire male population of the place turned out and fought the forest fire and finally succeeded in turning it back into the woods, being assisted by the wind. Mr. Olsen writes that he lost all his belongings, and the ranch where he worked was all burned over.

A SUNDAY MURDER AT

Walter S. Sterling, a Member of the City Police Force, Was The Victim of His Son-in-law, John E. Dame.

Dover, N. H., Aug. 24.—Walter S. Sterling, a member of the police force of this city, was shot and killed early Sunday morning by his son-in-law, John Edward Dame.

The shooting followed a quarrel, and Dame claims he shot in self-defense. He gave himself up to the police.

According to Dame's story, he was awakened early in the morning by Sterling, who was nailing up some clothes closets in the upper part of the house. Dame got out of bed and going upstairs, objected to the closing up of the doors as he had some clothes in the closets. Sterling turned upon him and, with an oath, shouted: "I will kill you," coming toward him with the broom in his hands.

Dame claims that Sterling struck him with the broom, and that he then drew his revolver and fired. The first shot, intended to frighten Sterling, struck the ceiling. The second hit Sterling in the breast, about two inches above the heart. He sank to the floor and fell over on his left side. As an indication that the men had been in a desperate fight before Sterling was shot there is a broken plate glass window on a nearby door.

PROMPT FIRE FIGHTING.

Prevented a Serious Blaze Back of Badger & Co. Store.

Quick and efficient work stopped what would have been a disastrous fire at the rear of A. W. Badger & company's store in the Morse building this forenoon. The fire was in a small building at the rear of the store, used for an ambulance shed and at the present time as a temporary store room for furniture.

Peter Emalie, clerk in the store was notified of the fire by Mrs. Masi who lives in the house at the back of the block and running out he saw smoke coming from around the closed doors of the shed. The women in the neighborhood brought water and by prompt work the fire was extinguished with small damage.

It is not known how the fire caught as the doors were closed but is probable that a lighted match was thrown into the inflammable exterior in which the furniture was packed through a crack in the building. When Mr. Emalie went to extinguish the fire he found a man in the act of lighting a match near the shed and he was given a summary command to leave the premises at once. The match lighter avowed that he had done no damage but got away as rapidly as possible.

BARRE MEN ARRIGNED.

Two Are Charged With Intoxication. A Larceny Case Heard.

The Montpelier city court today disposed of two cases of Barre men who were charged with intoxication. John Hughes was endeavoring to get any twelve men to stand up in front of his vicious punch on Main street Saturday night when Sheriff Pollard came along. The latter wasn't looking for trouble but he thought Hughes out to be under cover. So he essayed the job, being assisted by Alfred Hutchinson. Then Hughes promised to do better if the officer would let him go; but the officer wouldn't. In court Hughes was fined $5, with costs of $7.70 which he hopes to pay.

Fred Ellsworth was arrested the same night by Chief Durkee and on his plea of guilty he was fined $5, with costs of $7.60. He asked Judge Harvey to let him take the pledge, which will be done as soon as he pays the costs of the case.

Henry Bowers had a trial today on the charge of larceny of some tools from the capital hall shop and was found guilty. He was sentenced to three months in the house of correction. He took an appeal and as he was unable to furnish $100 bail he was kept locked up. The tools were stolen Wednesday night.

MERRY TIME OF IT FOR CATHOLIC FORESTERS

One of the Most Enjoyable Picnics of the Season Was Theirs at Caledonia Park Saturday Afternoon.

The members of the St. John's Court, No. 522, C. O. F., with their families, numbering a party of nearly 100, gathered at Caledonia park Saturday afternoon for their annual picnic and throughout the afternoon enjoyed themselves in the seats, swings and hammocks under shade, dancing in the pavilion and in games. Many brought well filled lunch baskets and in addition to these refreshment ice cream was served on the grounds.

Of the games the most interest was centered in the base ball game between the single and married men, which resulted in a decisive victory of 13 to 8 in favor of the "lone ones." A home run by Jim Marston, who had been drafted by the single men because of his record as a ball player made at Cape Ann, broke up the game in the fourth inning. This four-sacker coming so soon after Guyette's homer which delayed the game for fifteen minutes before the ball was finally bled out of the woods, and Frenier's circle of the bases on an infield hit, took the heart all out of the benedicts and they threw up the sponge in despair in spite of Umpire Burke's whole bunches of encouragement.

The single men were ably championed in the box by Andy Guthrie and Dolph Gones made a persistent backstop. "Capt." Gravelin pitched hard to keep up the forlorn hopes of the benedicts and Eddie Dion backed him up with a will that was good to see.

The benedicts and the single men were pitted against each other again in a tug of war battle and the singlets came off victorious a second time.

The winners in the races were as follows: girls under 7 years, Mildred Fitzgerald, first; Irene Brault, second; Alice Murphy, third; girls under 9 years, Kate Fitzgerald, first; Adeline McNulty, second; Vivian Marston, third. Girls under 12 years, Frances Burke, first, Mamie Keefe, second, Helen Marston, third; boys under 7 years, Charles Carroll, first, Alden Burke, second, Austin Boyce, third; boys under 9 years, William Lacroix, first, William Brault, second, Paul Frenier, third; boys under 12 years, Arthur Cayhne, first, Cyril Marston, second, Edward Carroll, third; married men's race under 40 years, A. N. Langlois, first, Thomas Leary, second, James Hastings, third; married men's race over 40 years, P. E. McNulty, first, William Lacroix, second, James Marston, third; single men's race, Arthur Frenier, first, James Carroll, second, A. J. Guthrie, third. The fat men's race, there being only one contestant, was won by Antoine Burke.

The committee which had charge of the arrangements for the day was composed of P. E. McNulty, James Fitzgerald, E. J. Dion, E. J. McNulty and D. J. Murphy.

IN HIS OLD PULPIT
AFTER SCORE OF YEARS

Rev. Peter McMillan of Worcester, Mass.

Preached at The Barre Congregational Church Yesterday.

The Congregational church was well filled yesterday morning when the Reverend Peter McMillan of Worcester, Mass., addressed the congregation. Mr. McMillan is a former pastor of the church and gave some amusing and interesting reminiscences of the time when he came to accept the pastorate 22 years ago.

He came here fresh from a theological seminary and relates, with evident relish, a remark which an elderly deacon of the church made in regard to him at that time. The man whom he succeeded as pastor of the church was an elderly gentleman and the wish of the congregation, or at least a part of it, was that a younger man should fill the place.

After hearing Mr. McMillan's first sermon the old deacon is said to have remarked to another official of the church: "Waal you wanted real and I guess you've got it."

Mr. McMillan was pastor of the church for seven years, after which he accepted a charge in Woodstock. From Woodstock he went to Northampton, Mass., and from there he went to Harvard university where he took a special course for a year. Upon leaving Harvard he went to Worcester, Mass., where he is at present the pastor of a church and also has charge of the mission work among the factories for the Y. M. C. A.

He spoke feelingly of the foreigners who were employed in these factories and says that but a single generation is required to make good American citizens of them. This change is brought about, first by the schools and secondly by the churches.

At the close of these reminiscent remarks and an outline of his present work Mr. McMillan preached a brief sermon taking for his text the apostle Paul's words from Galatians, second chapter, 20th verse: "I live, yet not I, but Christ liveth in me." The speaker spoke of the liability of people to adopt the methods, habits, gestures and ideas of persons whom they admired and sometimes it seems even their personalities. In concluding he said that it was impossible for us to open our hearts and minds to any greater personality than that of Christ and to let him rule us as he ruled Paul.

TOADSTOOLS
UNSAFE DIET

Two Families Were Poisoned Through a Mistake

TAKEN FOR MUSHROOMS

T. Rossi, Father of One of the Households, Was in Danger of Death For Some Time. Two Doctors Brought Him Around.

The families of T. Rossi and Albino Conti who reside on Foss street were poisoned yesterday from eating toadstools which they supposed were mushrooms. The two families, who reside in the same house, had eaten as a part of their dinner, late in the afternoon, what they had gathered as mushrooms. About an hour later all except Mr. Rossi became violently ill with pains in their stomachs. They had a serious time of it, during which interval Mr. Rossi was congratulating himself that although he had eaten of the stuff he had escaped any serious consequences.

His turn came at about five o'clock, however, and the sickness seemed to have gathered strength with the delay. He grew rapidly worse as the others grew better. Drs. Ghidella and Reid were summoned to attend the injured man and they found him in a very serious condition. The physicians used emetics, and that remedy failing they resorted to stomach pumps and then to injections into the blood. They were finally rewarded in noting a more favorable condition of the patient, and later Mr. Rossi was out of danger. He was about today but still felt some of the bad effects of his experience.

Those who are to enter the championship tournament this week must have their names in the hands of the tournament committee before nine o'clock Thursday morning so that the names of the contestants can be paired off, and the qualifying round for the championship must be completed before nine o'clock in the afternoon of that day. The annual handicap tournament can be played any time during Thursday.
